2023-2024 UNDERGRADUATE SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS (SAP) APPEAL (Part II)

Academic Plan Instructions for Academic Advisor

- Please complete and review the Academic Plan on page 1 with the student. If meeting remotely, the academic advisor should complete all parts of the academic plan, provide a copy to the student, and then email a copy to financialaid@unl.edu attention SAP Appeal.
The Academic Plan should provide the student with a plan for their academic recovery. An example would be recommending 12 credit hours or less per semester to ensure the student's academic success. The SAP Committee is not necessarily looking to see how fast a student can complete their degree, but is more interested in learning that the student has the potential to be academically successful.
Please note that the total number of remaining credit hours, plus the transfer credit hours, plus attempted UNL credit hours, should not total more than 180 credit hours. Please see Maximum Timeframe Requirement of SAP for Financial Aid Recipients Policy.
- For the students who have exceeded the SAP Maximum Timeframe Requirement (attempted 180 credit hours or more) and they are pursuing more than one major or minor, that is not required by the degree program, they should be advised to choose one major, in which to complete the degree, and to drop the minor if they wish to be considered for financial aid.
- If the student has transfer credit hours, please indicate the total number that apply directly toward degree completion, only. This is particularly important for reviewing appeals from students who have exceeded the 180 maximum attempted credit hours.
- Please include the target GPA that the student would need to raise their cumulative GPA to a minimum 2.000 or the minimum required GPA for the major.
- Very Important: Please direct students, who are undeclared and who have attempted 80 or more credit hours from all institutions attended, to an academic advisor for their intended major to ensure that the degree can be completed within 150% of the degree credit hours (180 credit hours).
- Please acknowledge, by checking the box, that you have reviewed the Academic Plan with the student and have forwarded them a copy.

If the appeal is approved, in addition to abiding by the recommendations presented on this Academic Plan, the student must meet the following criteria each semester until they are either meeting the SAP policy guidelines or they have graduated whichever comes first: successfully complete all attempted courses with no failures, withdrawals or incomplete courses; maintain a semester GPA of at least a 2.000 or the recommended GPA; successfully complete the degree within the total number of credit hours designated by the Academic Plan and follow all stipulations within the appeal approval email.
